CAUSE

The defendant, Joey Junior Mendiola, has adjusted to probation sufficiently well, and is scheduled to expire on April 7, 2006. He has tried to comply with his probation conditions, however, he has been faced with many obstacles and he has tried his best to overcome them. On December 31, 2005, Mr. Mendiola's employer, STS Corporation, closed business and he was laid-off. On January 27, 2006, Mr. Mendiola's wife gave birth to their second child six weeks premature. Mr. Mendiola and his wife recently moved to a new home, and have no phone or transportation. Mr. Mendiola has been unable to complete his community service and has a balance of 37 hours. He has been compliant with all other conditions and continues to make restitution payments despite his current lack of employment.

Based on the information above, this probation officer respectfully requests that the Court extend Mr. Mendiola's term of probation by six months, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3564(d). Attached is Probation Form 49, Waiver of Hearing to Modify Conditions of Probation/Supervised Release or Extend Term of Supervision, with Mr. Mendiola's consent to the extension.

Waiver of Hearing to Modify Conditions of Probation/Supervised Release or Extend Term of Supervision

I have been advised and understand that I am entitled by law to a hearing and assistance of counsel before any unfavorable change may be made in my Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release or my period of supervision being extended. By "assistance of counsel," I understand that I have the right to be represented at the hearing by counsel of my own choosing if I am able to retain counsel. I also understand that I have the right to request the court to appoint counsel to represent me at such a hearing at no cost to myself if I am not able to retain counsel of my own choosing.

I hereby voluntarily waive my statutory right to a hearing and to assistance of counsel. I also agree to the following modification of my Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release or to the proposed extension of my term of supervision:

- I agree that my term of probation will be extended by six months and will expire on September 7, 2006.
